FEAST OF ST. PETER AND ST. PAUL DATE: JUNE 29

The Feast of St. Peter and St. Paul is a religious holiday celebrated around the world.

St. Peter was a patron of the fisherman, and St. Paul was known for his hand craft. Both were martyred on the same day leading to the celebration of these two individuals on the same day. They are celebrated on June 29 with Christians all over the world celebrating this day as the Feast of St. Peter and St. Paul

HISTORY OF THE FEAST OF ST. PETER AND ST. PAUL

The Feast of St. Peter and St. Paul is one of the oldest festivals observed by Christians. There is evidence which suggest that this day was celebrated as far back as the fourth century.

St. Peter, a Galilean fisherman by profession, was chosen by Jesus Christ as one of his twelve apostles. He was also the first apostle of Jesus Christ, assigned a role of leadership. He was one of the few apostles who were with Jesus to witness the Transfiguration. Several churches including the Roman Catholic Church, the Oriental Orthodox Church, the Eastern Orthodox Church, the Lutheran Church, and the Anglican Communion consider him to be a saint.

St. Paul on the other hand is the author of 13 of the 27 books of the Bible. He is also the hero in another book, the Acts of the Apostles. He was born in Tarsus, located in present-day eastern Turkey. He was a tentmaker by profession and was a Roman citizen. For someone who made a living by making tents with his hand, he could write with the fineness of a philosopher. He is considered one of the greatest people to have existed in the Western world, one who was responsible for establishing some of the very fundamental concepts of faith.

FEAST OF ST. PETER AND ST. PAUL TRADITIONS, CUSTOMS AND ACTIVITIES

The Feast of St. Peter and St. Paul is celebrated as a public holiday in some countries with customs varying from location to location. Special masses in the churches may be held to commemorate the martyrdom of the two saints. Coastal and island communities may decorate their boats and wharfs to give praise to St. Peter, the patron saint of fishermen.

Chaplains Message

It is hard to believe that summer is on it's last leg. It sure was a hot one this year. I hope we all have some fond memories despite the heat. We are all called to look at life and what life gives us with a positive outlook. That may seem hard at time and indeed it is. God does not want us to have hard times and troubles. Unfortunately, they come our way because we have caused them ourselves or we have allowed other to determine the way things go. This is not God's way. As Christian men we can help ourselves and others in determining our fate. We can do it with trusting in the God who loves us and wants the best for us. Let's make that our goal for the future especially as a new year begins in our schools. Our Youth need to see our positive ways and attitudes. We can do it with God's help. May God bless all of you, your families and the good work that you all do.

Fr. Dennis

Brother Knights welcome back. I hope everyone had an enjoyable summer and is ready for another exciting fraternal year. As with every new year comes changes and there is new things being incorporated into the year which I will bring up at the meeting in September. Take the time now, look how involved you are with your council and its activities, and see if there is any extra time that you can give to help support it. Remember our fellow Brothers who have gone before us and keep them in our prayers
God of power and mercy, you have made death itself the gateway to eternal life. Look with love on our dying brothers, and make them one with Your Son in His suffering and death, that sealed with the blood of Christ, they may come before you free from sin. Amen.
